

Clean Lines Highlight 1960 Oldsmobile

A trim balanced design of clean flowing lines highlight the modern styling of the Oldsmobile for 1960. This side view of the "98" Holiday Sport Sedan shows off the smooth, uncluttered lines to their best advantage. The low and level design of the hood affords better forward visibility and the rounded contour of the front fenders adds parking maneuverability. The low-level design also is incorporated in the expansive "Clean-Sweep" rear deck. Sport Sedan body styles also are available in the Dynamic "98" and the Super "98" series Oldsmobiles for 1960.

Ike Gives Steel

the Taft-Hartley law's emergency provisions.

The governors of 10 steel-producing states suggested Tuesday that Eisenhower name an impartial chairman to preside over the negotiations and push for quick agreement.

They did not name any particular person, but said he should be "a distinguished person in American life."

Invocation of the Taft-Hartley procedure would lead to appointment of a fact-finding board to report on the issues. Once the board filed a report the President could authorize the Justice Department to seek a court injunction stopping the strike for an 80-day period.

It was expected that as a result of Eisenhower's appeal, industry and union bargaining would be resumed if only for a matter of a few days.

That is all it would take, informed officials said, to determine whether the disputants take Eisenhower's warnings to heart or merely continue the ineffectual discussions that have been going on for many months.

There are two major issues. One is the industry demand for more freedom in making work practice economies. The other is the union's demand for a 15-cent hourly pay and benefit boost for each year of a new contract. Steel workers averaged $3.11 hourly earnings before the strike.

El Dorado Plant Strike Is Ended

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP)—A 10-day strike at Arkansas Steel Inc. ended today and the plant's 30 workers returned to their jobs. Company officials confirmed the settlement of the walkout but the terms were not disclosed.

Meanwhile, there were reports another negotiating session might be called for tomorrow in the strike at the American Oil Co. refinery. Some 370 workers are idle in the strike, which began July 1.

DOROTHY DIX

Full-Time Lover Boy May Be Wooing Money

By DOROTHY DIX

Dear Dorothy Dix: I'm a wealthy widow. Three months ago I met a charming man five years my junior who gave up his job to entertain me. He supports an elderly sister and she, too, spends a great deal of time with me, traveling, attending concerts, playing golf, etc. My friend says he can easily get another job. He overwelms me with a never-ending flow of compliments, and has proposed marriage. My friends say he is looking for a free home. Do you think so? And could a woman ever respect a man she must feed and clothe?—Irma

Dear Irma: Your gallant escort is undoubtedly out for free living, and is even willing to have you support sister. It might be worthwhile to support him for his entertaining ways, but once he has his hand in the till it's very doubtful if the compliments would continue. He has you pegged as an easy mark, a role that never wins respect from anyone. If you agree to play Lady Beautiful to the pair, they will have nothing but contempt for you. A lady of wealth can buy her own entertainment. You could never buy back your self-respect, or the respect of others. Let your male gold-digger work for his bread. Pay for your own entertainment.

Dear Dorothy Dix: I've just entered junior high, and find that most of the kids use real jazzy nail polish. I want to use it too, but mom is against it. What arguments do you have to uphold my position?—Ginger

Dear Ginger: Nail polish isn't a moral issue. It's a matter of taste. The only possible argument you have, is that "all the other girls do it," and that's not very strong. Nail polish, jazzy or not, only looks well if the hands and nails are perfectly kept. Chipped nail polish is terrible. Nails pink with youth and health are much better. Use polish later, to cover up deficiencies. If you must polish now, use a quieter shade.

Dear Dorothy Dix: Strange as it may seem, I've reached the age of 20 without ever being seriously attracted to a man. Since the death of my mother seven years ago, I've taken care of my grandmother, or rather lived with her since she certainly needs no one to take care of her. She's a hale, hearty woman, with an independent income. Now, I've met a man I want to marry. Grandma says if I do, she'll kill herself. What can I do?—Gilda

Dear Gilda: Step around to your clergyman and get married. Grandma is bluffing. She hasn't the slightest intention of committing suicide. Give her some extra love and attention for a while, and when you put her great-grandchild in her arms, she'll lose the last trace of resentment.

Dear Dorothy Dix: Last week I went on my first date with a boy 19. I'm 14. He took me to a drive-in and all he wanted to do was neck. After the movie we stopped at a cumb service, and I thought he'd take me home. Instead he drove to a lonely place

Singer Seeking a Separation in Italy

BRESCIA, Italy (AP)—The husband of opera star Maria Meneghini Calas is seeking the nearest thing to a divorce permitted in Italy—legal separation. Giovanni Balista Meneghini, 62, filed suit against the temperamental, 35-year-old prima donna, saying the marriage was on the rocks "for reasons depending on the fault of the wife herself."

Italian law prohibits divorce. Even if a legal separation is granted, neither Meneghini nor Miss Calas would be free to remarry in Italy.

The suit did not mention Greek shipping magnate Aristotle Oasiss, whom Meneghini had earlier blamed for the breakup of his 10-year marriage to the singer.

Porkers Will Be Minus Starting Fullback Sat.

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The Arkansas Razorbacks learned yesterday that they may have to go against awesome Texas Christian Saturday without Joe Paul Alberty, their No. 1 fullback.

Alberty missed last week's 13-7 victory over Oklahoma State but was expected to be back in action for the TCU game. He was replaced by sophomore Curtis Cox last week, who did an excellent job.

But Coach Frank Broyles needs as much manpower as he can muster against the Horned Frogs.

"We know we'll be playing against three good teams Saturday," Broyles said, and they'll out weigh us tremendously in the line."

TCU's first unit line outweighs Arkansas by 25 pounds per man. The second frog unit outweighs the Razorbacks 38 pounds per man on the line.

The Razorbacks are expected to open up their offense against TCU Saturday. They threw only three passes against Tulsa and one against Oklahoma State, but fans can expect more of an aerial game against TCU's almost impenetrable defenses.

Broyles won't even reveal his starting lineup for Saturday, other than to say Cox probably will go for Alberty.

The porkers went through hard contact drills yesterday and expected more of the same today. They'll slack off tomorrow.

Fundamentally TCU has a fullback offense, contrasted to Arkansas' halfback attack. Three senior letterman fullbacks carry the load to both sides and up the middle and Coach Abe Martin's Frogs use end and halfback splits, too.

The Razorback first and second units yesterday worked against TCU offenses and defenses as simulated by the T team.

Paul Dudley, a junior, probably will run behind Cox at fullback Saturday. He did a good job for the Wild Hogs (second unit) against Oklahoma State.

Dudley and Cox are expected to present a formidable fullback corps for the Hogs by next year.

El Dorado Is Still in Top Spot in State

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Coneh Garland Gregory's El Dorado Wildcats, unscathed in three games this season, are unanimously the top high school football team in Arkansas.

The Wildcats got all seven first place votes in this week's Arkansas Sports Writers Assn. poll.

Fort Smith, a team the Wildcats beat 12-0, ranks second. In third place is Pine Bluff, a team Fort Smith beat last week, 14-12.

Then come Hall, Central and Catholic of Little Rock, North Little Rock is seventh, followed by Forrest City, Texarkana and Benton.

Catholic, Forrest City and Benton are the only Class AA schools in the top ten this week. Catholic High and Benton meet Friday night at Benton in the state's AA game of the week.

El Dorado has hurried past Magnolia (42-0), Fort Smith (12-0) and Shreveport Fair Park (9-0) in three weeks. The Wildcats meet North Little Rock Friday night in El Dorado and are three-touchdown favorites.

Two Class A teams, Fordyce and De Queen, tied for 11th place in this week's poll. Fordyce is unbeaten in three games and De Queen has lost only to Hope in three starts.

Early, easily the best Class B team in the state, moved into the 20th spot this week after an upset victory last week over West Memphis.

Little Rock Central, ranked fifth despite the fact that it has played only one game (a victory over

Dodgers Rally Twice to Go Into the World Series

By BOB MYERS Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The champion Los Angeles Dodgers moved into Chicago today, ready to take on the White Sox for the world championship.

The Milwaukee Braves, shorn of their National League pennant, headed for their homes.

But the scene in Memorial Coliseum Tuesday as dusk settled was still a vivid memory to the 36,528 fans gathered in the place, and the thousands who watched on television.

Two of the great heroes of the Dodger old guard, first baseman Gil Hodges and outfielder Carl Furillo, were all but dismantled by their teammates as the battle came to its quick end in the 12th inning.

Hodges scored the winning run in the 6 to 5 victory on Furillo's hit back of second base, a tally made possible when Felix Mantilla threw wild to first base.

The entire Dodger team suddenly became one rolling, tangled mass of happy ballplayers. Silently, in typical Indian single file procession, the Braves walked out of their dugout, down the long tunnel and into their dressing quarters.

They said not a word during the game. Paducah, Ky.) meets Hot Springs Friday night in its first conference game.

march, and very little as they showed, dressed and took off. There was no champagne celebration in the Dodgers quarters. For one thing, liquor is barred from the city-owned Coliseum.

For another, the team had less than three hours to take off for Chicago.

But there was a joyous interlude. Hodges poured a soft drink over the head of the winning pitcher, young Stan Williams. Then he got on the rubbing table to have his chronically sore leg massaged.

Manager Walt Alston, a soft-spoken, kindly sort of man, was speaking for moments but finally said: "At the moment, I can't think of much to say."

Presently Alston excused himself. He showed up, still in uniform and spiked shoes, in the Braves dressing room to shake hands with Braves manager Fred Haney.

"You came from behind to win game Tuesday," sportsman Haney declared. "Now go after the White Sox."

The Dodgers, first club ever to win an NL pennant after finishing seventh the year before, jumped into Comiskey Park for a workout today. They boarded a flight from Los Angeles a few hours after eliminating the defending champion Braves two straight in the best of three playoff with Tuesday's 6-5, 12-inning victory.

Lopez, meanwhile, sent his White Sox through an intra-squad game Tuesday, hoping to keep them sharp.

First Game of Series Opens on Thursday

By D. WILKS Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — The Los Angeles Dodgers and the Chicago White Sox, two clubs who have to scrap for what they get, finally open what might be the richest World Series in history here Thursday at Comiskey Park.

Manager Walt Alston, his Dodgers riding high after beating Milwaukee in the National League pennant playoff, said his first game pitcher will be Roger Craig (11-5), an almost forgotten right-hander who became a ace in the drive for the flag.

White Sox Manager Al Lopez is expected to name Early Wynn, 39, the Old Man right-hander who topped the majors with 22 victories and was the American League's only 20-game winner.

The odds makers favor the White Sox, playing in a World Series for the first time in 40 years, at 11-10 for both the series and the first game.

The first two games will be played in Comiskey Park with the best-of-seven championship then shifting to the Coliseum in Los Angeles for the third, fourth and, if necessary, fifth games. If needed, the sixth and seventh games will be played in Chicago, with a day of travel interrupting play when the clubs shift parks.

It's the massive Coliseum, seating some 94,000 for baseball, which could make this the richest series. All games will start at 1 p.m. local time and will be telecast and broadcast nationally by NBC.

The bookmakers have made the White Sox favorites because of their three days of rest since Sunday's close of the American League season. That layoff, however, may have cooled off the Sox, while the Dodgers could still be riding the kick of having won eight of their last 10 games.
